Something Squishy

Photo & Video Consent Form

Something Squishy occasionally takes photographs and short videos during sessions for use on social media and marketing materials. These images help showcase our activities and learning-through-play environment.

Consent

I hereby give permission for Something Squishy to capture photographs and/or videos of my child during sessions. I understand that these images may be used for promotional purposes, including but not limited to social media platforms (Instagram, Facebook, TikTok or WhatsApp), the Something Squishy website, and other digital or physical marketing materials.

I understand that no names or personal identifying information about my child will be shared alongside these images.

Circle YES, if you give consent for your child's images to be used as described above.

Circle NO FACE, if you do not want your child's face to be shown but you're comfortable with your child's body in motion (hands, feet, and back) to be captured.

Circle NO, if you completely do not give consent for your child's images or body in motion to be used.
